PLAY UP your makeup

You've cut your hair; now, you need to be sure your makeup is making the most of your mane! Gabriela Santana-Blackburn, Director of Esthetics at Tricoci University in Illinois and Indiana, shares tips on how to get the nighttime look you want.

Edgy. Enhance your eyes with come-hither makeup. Use a liquid eyeliner for definition or a dark shadow to create a smoky effect, says Santana-Blackburn. A lipgloss in a dusty rose shade will balance things out.

Polished. For an all-natural look, start with a flawless canvas—Santana-Blackburn suggests using a concealer to hide imperfections, followed by foundation to create smoothness. Finish with mascara, blush and a neutral lip color for a no-fuss look.

Dramatic. Are you looking to punch up the drama? Put your lips front and center with a bold lip color—shades of reds or fuchsia are great choices for short-haired ladies, says Santana-Blackburn.
