More brides classic updos recommended by Jennifer McGann, Director of Cosmetology at the Tricoci University of Beauty Culture (TUBC):

1. Loose Waves

Working with waves and texture gives professional hair stylists the opportunity to create fun bridal styles that can be structured and relaxed! Waves are always fashionable and in season, especially for weddings. Don't be afraid to pump up the volume, as it's all the rage this season.

2. Undone, All Down

To achieve an undone look that has some structure and volume, start with a heavy blow dry classic updos. Check out three of the summer's hottest hair trends for brides recommended by Jennifer McGann, Director of Cosmetology at the Tricoci University of Beauty Culture (TUBC):

loose pony!

3. The Bridal Bob

STILL in but it's much more bride-friendly in 2011. This year's bob is longer and more voluminous, a shoulder length cut with a straight or wavy style. Believe it or not, this is flattering on virtually every face shape and allows for multiple looks and styles. wavy - you'll be stunning on your wedding day!
