3 Summer Beauty Trends You've Got to Try!

Summer is here, but is your makeup still a season behind? Don't let your look get stale- spice up your beauty routine by adding some fun summer makeup styles! Gabriela Santana-Blackburn, the Director of Esthetics and Teacher Training Education at Tricoci University, has shared this summer's three hottest makeup trends. Check them out!

Coral Lips

The lip colors we love right now? Bold and punchy shades of coral and orange. They're fresh, summery alternatives to the classic red. Try mixing shades of the orange and red to get the perfect color for you.

Metallic and Violet Eyes

We are seeing rich shades of violet eyeliner and eye shadow this summer. Kick up your intrigue level by adding a shimmery purple shade. Apply from your lash line to your crease, and then line the upper lid with a deep violet liner. You can use this color to simply line the eyes or bring it out to the crease to give a smoky effect.

Metallic shadows are also very popular for this summer. Use them in fairer shades to add light and openness to the eyes. You can also try darker shades for a smokier look.

Colorful Cheeks

Say goodbye to nude tones, because this summer we are seeing colorful, blushing cheek colors. Apply bright shades of pinks and corals to the apples of the cheeks to make yourself really stand out!
