So you think you can style? Tricoci University of Beauty Culture is looking for the next beauty professional in each of the cosmetology and esthetics programs of study.

Now through October 21, aspiring TUBC students are invited to submit a picture of their best hair or make-up look and tell TUBC why they deserve to win a full scholarship in either esthetics or cosmetology. Visit the TUBC Facebook page and submit all entries on the wall at www.Facebook.com/TricociUniversity.

The most promising entries will be interviewed by the TUBC admissions team to determine who will move on to the finals for the vote-off. Finalists will be compiled into two separate TUBC Facebook albums: Cosmetology or Esthetics. The contestant who receives the most 'likes' on their photo submission between Oct. 31 and Nov. 4th will win a full scholarship in the program study of their choice.
