must fight against underestimating our natural energy source, wind, turbines in sprawling chains of change in the psychological, economic, and health, and to the legal rights of our communities.

County Energy Task Force, then Nantux, drew a wind ordinance through the Winnago County Board two years ago, proposing to erect turbines on affected land.

At a meeting in March, the Board approved the ordinance, but it was rescinded until it was ready to be re-introduced.

Tricoci offers Father's Day options

Staff Report

This year for Father's Day, put the tie back on the rack and do something different. With the holiday right around the corner, it's time to think about how to show appreciation for all of Dad's hard work, support and dedication.

Dad deserves some much-needed relaxation, pampering and grooming, so go the practical route at the Tricoci University of Beauty Culture's (TUBC) Rockford Campus, 5485 E. State St.

Tricoci University offers a whole menu of services, perfect for that special Father's Day gift. Spa treatments help men relieve stress from work, travel and other daily activities. Treat Dad to a haircut, beard/mustache trim, facial, manicure or pedicure. Prices range $5-$20 for select services, with men's haircuts starting at $10.

All services are performed by students under the supervision of a licensed instructor, working together to ensure the ultimate pampering experience. TUBC also offers gift certificates that are available in any denomination and can be redeemed for retail products or beauty services.

Call (815) 266-9848 to make an appointment in advance, as the salons can be busy, and visit www.tricociuniversity.com to view the menu of salon services.

Swedish Midsommar Fest set for June 18

Staff Report
In Sweden, Midsommar is the celebration of the summer solstice. Visit the Tricoci Museum from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., Saturday, June 18, and participate in this annual summer event.

The Tricoci Museum is at 404 S. Third St., Rockford. Many events will take place outdoors in the area surrounding the museum.

Taste great foods like open face and meatball sandwiches, hot dogs, strawberries and ice cream, coffee cake, Swedish pastiches and more. Neighboring residents will display their talents and sell their wares. The Swedish Under the Park across the street from the museum will have continuous activities for children of all ages, including the game of Kubb, throughout the day.

Still in the shade and listen to live music and dancing. Making the Midsommar party will be a joyous event at noon with singing and dancing. Everyone is welcome to participate in the activities. Enjoy the Tricoci garden for a quiet place to rest and enjoy soft music.

A special preview of the Quilt Exhibit for the Northern Illinois Quilt Fest will be from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. in the Tricoci Home Museum at Midsommar.
