TRICOCI UNIVERSITY CONTEST ALERT! ▶ A new contest from the Mario Tricoci family of salons continues to get buzz and we don't want you to miss out. Are you Tricoci University of Beauty Culture's number one fan? Now through September 13th, visit your local Tricoci University Student Salon to receive your favorite salon service. Before leaving, fill out a contest card to let us know why you are TUBC's number one fan. TUBC executives, including Mario Tricoci himself, will select the top two entries submitted from each campus to compete for the grand prize: free student salon services for an entire year. Everyone will have the opportunity to log onto the TUBC Facebook page on Monday, September 19 to vote for whom they believe is the number one fan. The entrant that receives the most Facebook votes by 5:00 PM on Friday, September 23 will win Tricoci University Student salon services for one year. [Racked Inbox]
