Mario Tricoci spent the first stage of his spectacular career "raising the bar" for upscale salons, creating the day spa concept in the Midwest. In a similar fashion, he founded Tricoci University in 2004 with the intent to redefine beauty education.

Mario's innovative approach to teaching prepares students to enter the industry as professionals.

Tricoci University has been internationally recognized as a leader in beauty education. In 2010, the school received the Intercoiffure Mondial Best World Academy Award 2010 and the Repêchage President's Award.

Tricoci University offers programs of study in cosmetology, esthetics, and teacher training.
